INFORMATION FORM
FOR PREPARATION OF CONSULAR REPORT OF DEATH ABROAD

When an American citizen dies abroad, the Consulate General is required to prepare a Consular Report of Death Abroad to send to the Department of State in Washington. The report is based on the British Death Certificate and is an official document acceptable in any U.S. jurisdiction for the settlement of legal, financial, and estate matters. It is also proof of U.S. citizenship at the time of death. A copy of the Report of Death will be filed with the Social Security and Veteran's Administrations in the U.S. Embassy London Federal Benefits Unit, and a copy will be sent to the state of birth (if applicable).

To assist with the preparation of this document, please provide the following information and return the form to the above address, with an original death certificate and the deceased's U.S. passport or Naturalization Certificate. If the deceased had neither of these, please provide other proof of American Citizenship. Please print clearly. The original documents you enclose will be returned to you.
